JESSICA CRAIG-MARTIN ART

This piece sits on a wall just outside the kitchen. “Lilly is an art collector and the works she collects are bold and colorful,” says Weeks, who decided to paint the walls with Benjamin Moore’s Sandy Brown khaki-hued paint. (White doesn’t work well on television.) “I picked a warm neutral color as the backdrop for the art.” This artist is also part of the Art Production Fund. BUY ONLINE NOW Watermill Center Benefit Gala 2007 photograph, Jessica Craig-Martin, price upon request; at artnet.com.
