Though it may seem that Armory Week and Frieze Week get all the action, the reality is that there is never a dull moment in the New York art world. From the East Side to the West Side, there's always something happening at the city's museums, galleries, and various event spaces. This week was no exception.

Art Production Fund Concrete Jungle Gala

Guests were dressed to the nines Wednesday night, March 16, for the "Concrete Jungle" benefit hosted by Art Production Fund in honor of Ryan McGinley and Jane Kaplowitz Rosenblum. To raise money for Ugo Rondinone's "Seven Magic Mountains" project in a desert just outside of Las Vegas, the non-profit organization held a live auction of works donated by Yoko Ono, Deborah Kass, and Alex Katz, among others.

The star-studded list of attendees included actresses Chloë Sevigny, and artists Marilyn Minter, Zoë Buckman, Cindy Sherman, and Deborah Kass. Highlights on the evening included a temporary tattoo station from Joyce Pensato and live performances by Lion Babe and Petra Collins and Madelyne Beckles.
