

ENTERTAINING + TRAVEL

Art on the Move

Works by major artists hit the streets

Written by Elizabeth Stamp

 PRINT Like

Photo: James Ewing / Courtesy of Art Production Fund

This month, New Yorkers can catch an exhibition while catching a cab. The tops of 500 taxis have received temporary makeovers courtesy of artists Chuck Close and Kehinde Wiley. The roaming display, “Art Adds,” swaps car-roof advertisements with Wiley’s The Virgin Martyr St. Cecilia and Femme Piquee Par Un Serpent and closeups on sections of Lorna and Lucas by Close. The campaign is a collaboration between Show Media and Art Production Fund. The works will be on the road through January 31.