

IMAGINE PEACE

Yoko Ono's IMAGINE PEACE Billboards in Times Square on Peace Day (Sept 21st)

Yoko Ono with Yvonne Force Vilareal (L) and Doreen Remen (R) from Art Production Fund at Times Square on Peace Day 21 Sept 2012.

Dear Friends,

These two gorgeous girls, Yvonne and Doreen from Art Production Fund, gave me the opportunity to create this IMAGINE PEACE Street Art for International Peace Day.

I'm happy that I now live in an age where women with intelligence and power are also mindful of keeping their life peaceful.

I just came back from a ceremony to give PUSSY RIOT the LennonOno Grant For Peace. They are also far from the stereotypical Russian woman.

It takes a lot of work to stay peaceful. That's thinking the right way about things. And it shows in the person's expression of face, body and movement.

Have fun, have love, and have peace! WOMEN POWER!

I love you!
