

GUEST OF A GUEST /AFTER HOURS 2: MURALS ON THE BOWERY / APRIL 25, 2013

Everything You Need to Know This Week On New York's Art Scene

By Stephanie Maida | Apr 25, 2013

For decades the Bowery has been an iconic Downtown destination for urban artists and art-lovers alike. The New Museum, a staple of the Bowery, in partnership with the Art Production Fund, will be keeping this tradition alive with After Hours 2: Murals on the Bowery, in conjunction with the 2013 IDEAS CITY Festival. When the sun sets and the steel shutters go down, the streets from East Houston to Grand will become an unexpected maze of murals. Armed with a map and cell phone-accessible audio guide, pedestrians can easily navigate the after hours exhibition like it's just a summertime stroll.

When: April 25-September 29

Where: The Bowery, between East Houston and Grand Streets
